23.1 Conference Champion

23.1.1 The conference champion shall be determined by the winner of the championship match. There will be two conference weekends dedicated to round robin play followed by the four-team seeded championship on the Saturday prior to the NCAA championship. At the end of the second conference weekend, seeding for the Championship finals will be determined by conference standings using best overall conference records and/or tie-breakers below. The format of the championship day will be final four single-elimination playoff hosted by the top seed. (1 vs 4, 2 vs 3 with winners advancing to the championship match).

The tie-breakers shall be as follows (in the instance of a three or more way tie, once one team is eliminated by a tie-breaker, the remaining teams will begin the tie-breaker process anew starting with the first criteria):

- 1. Head-to-head record
- 2. Percentage of win/loss games against all tied teams (conference contests only)
- 3. Point differential against all tied teams (conference contests only)
- 4. Coin toss
